Dear Alan:

I have received your letter of 16 November 1950 and will attempt to reply without delay since we are in the throes of moving from our luxurious quarters in the South Building to a somewhat questionable location from the standpoint of comfort in [redacted]
25X1A6a
25X1A6a [redacted] (a temporary building down on the river).

25X1A7b
To answer your first question, whether you remain in [redacted]
25X1A7b or go to [redacted] will not influence your promotion. There are vacancies in both places and I will consider you at any time you
25X1A7b are recommended by your [redacted] at either place.

In reply to your second question, while I cannot make a firm
25X1A7b commitment that you could leave [redacted] in the second week of December, at the moment I see no reason why this could not be done.

25X1A9a
If both [redacted] go from [redacted] the Table
25X1A7b of Organization will be full for several months to come. However 25X1A7b I have asked for an increase of two positions in [redacted] which would 25X1A7b make another opening if the increase is granted. There is no
25X1A7b question in my mind that splitting your tour between [redacted] and [redacted] would make you a more valuable employee and enhance your chances for promotion in the Division.

25X1A9a
At the moment I am waiting to hear from [redacted] I do not know
25X1A9a what proposal he has to make but as soon as I hear from him I will 25X1A9a convey my desires to [redacted] as to whether you or [redacted] or both are 25X1A7b to be transferred to [redacted] I assume from the tone of your letter if it is decided that you should go it will be agreeable.

Sincerely,

25X1A9a [redacted]
